Dear Ms. Dortch:

On March 10, 2006, Bob Ross, Senior Vice President, East Coast Operations of CBS Broadcasting, Charlie Fagen, Vice President, Operations and Engineering of CBS Broadcasting, and I, along with David Donovan, president of MSTV, met with the following individuals from the Office of Engineering and Technology: Julius Knapp, Alan Stillwell, Karen Rackley and Ira Keltz. We discussed our concerns regarding the operation of unlicensed devices in the broadcast television band, which is the subject of the above-captioned proceeding.

If you have any questions regarding this meeting, please do not hesitate to contact the undersigned.

Sincerely,
